Experience the ultimate blend of country charm and modern functionality at Bella Vista Winery, a fully operational estate nestled among rolling vineyards and serene lakes in Maryville, Illinois. Spanning 21,444± square feet of turn-key space, this property welcomes guests through a stylish front tasting room and central bar before leading them into a grand ballroom and adjoining outdoor terrace. A professionally outfitted commercial kitchen, two restrooms, and a dedicated office complete the main floor, ensuring seamless event operations from intimate tastings to large celebrations. Below, a state-of-the-art wine cellar is home to specialized pressing, fermenting, and bottling equipment alongside additional event space and two more restrooms. From here, guests can step onto a patio overlooking one of the estate's two lakes, where manicured lawns extend toward back-vineyard views and wooded tree lines. Zoned PD-B Planned Business Development and AG-Agriculture within the Village of Maryville, this four-parcel property lies mere minutes from major Metro East thoroughfares, making it both a tranquil retreat and an accessible destination. Ideal for investors, winemakers, and restaurateurs, Bella Vista Winery offers a truly turnkey opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind venue in a picturesque countryside setting.
