Welcome to this inviting partially brick, ranch home nestled on a generous 3.0± acre lot in Waterloo, including 2.12± acres of tillable ground. This property blends country charm with everyday convenience, offering a peaceful setting just minutes from IL-Route 158 for easy commuting. Step inside through the main entrance and discover a spacious living room bathed in natural light from a large front window. The adjoining kitchen and dining area feature all major appliances, ample cabinetry, and expansive countertops, perfect for both meal preparation and casual gatherings. Down the main hallway, three comfortable bedrooms await, including a primary suite complete with a walk-in closet and a private three-quarter bathroom. The two additional bedrooms share a full bathroom located just steps away, offering functionality and comfort for family or guests. The full, unfinished basement houses the laundry and utility area and comes equipped with a washer and dryer, deep freeze, hand sink, and electric stove, adding practical convenience to daily living. Outside, a covered front porch offers a quiet spot for morning coffee with serene views of the surrounding countryside. A covered side entrance with an accessible ramp leads directly into the kitchen, making unloading groceries a breeze. The drive-through gravel driveway provides ample parking, while the poured concrete patio at the rear connects seamlessly to the dining area through elegant French doors, creating a natural flow for entertaining and outdoor enjoyment. Experience the comfort of ranch-style living in a tranquil rural setting with endless possibilities.
