Nestled on a desirable corner lot in Belleville, IL, this 2-bedroom, 1-bath home blends traditional charm with endless potential. It is ready for a new owner to bring modern updates to make it truly shine. A bright living room with large corner windows filling the space with natural light and highlighting a decorative fireplace. Beyond the living area, a combined kitchen and dining space offers flexibility for easy weekday meals and casual gatherings. Just off the kitchen a bonus room, also accessible from the driveway, presents an opportunity for a second family room, home office, or creative studio. Down the main hallway, a well-appointed full bathroom near the two spacious bedrooms, each featuring generous closet space and large windows. The full, partially finished basement expands the living area and includes ample storage along with utility hookups and space for a washer and dryer. Outside, the 0.25± acre lot provides room to grow and enjoy, with proximity to local schools, Belleville's vibrant Public Square, and public transportation making daily life convenient and connected. Whether you are an investor seeking resale potential, a landlord expanding your rental portfolio, or a homeowner ready to personalize your dream space, this property offers a solid foundation and the freedom to design every detail to suit your vision. Special Note: Home has known mine subsidence.
