Experience the charm of this custom-built brick home nestled in the heart of Freeburg, IL. Lovingly maintained and brimming with character, this three-bedroom, two-bath home invites your distinctive touch and creative updates. Sunlight pours into the family room through vinyl windows dressed in treatments, drawing the eye to the floor-to-ceiling brick and stone mantle that anchors the gas-burning fireplace. Adjacent to the family room, the formal dining area easily converts into a second living space or home office, while the kitchen offers generous countertop space, stainless steel appliances, and ample cabinet storage. Three equally sized bedrooms line the main hallway, each just steps from the home's full bath, ensuring comfort and convenience for family and guests alike. In addition, the home has original hardwood flooring beneath the carpeting in the bedrooms. Downstairs, a finished bonus room awaits alongside a three-quarter bath and a dedicated laundry and utility space complete with washer, dryer, and utility sink. Direct access to the oversized single-car tuck-under garage makes everyday living effortless. Outside, a 36' x 24' outbuilding equipped with electricity provides endless possibilities for vehicle storage, a workshop, or hobby haven. Set on a sprawling 0.73± acre lot, the manicured lawns and rolling landscape create a serene retreat. With top-rated schools, Metro East amenities, and Scott Air Force Base just minutes away, this home combines timeless craftsmanship with modern versatility.
