Arrive down a tree-lined drive to this lovingly cared-for split-level home, a true sanctuary nestled on 5.25± acres of rolling landscape, cleared areas, and mature woodlands. The morning sun filters through towering trees, warming the spacious living room where a stone hearth fireplace, premium LVP flooring, and generous windows create a welcoming atmosphere. The dining area opens seamlessly into a bright and practical kitchen, complete with custom cabinetry, stone countertops, a built-in wall pantry, and gleaming stainless-steel appliances. A cozy island invites weekend brunches and weekday coffee rituals, while a nearby half bath and separate laundry room keep daily chores tucked neatly away. The primary suite offers oversized closet space and a private bath featuring a soaking tub and stand-alone tiled shower, the perfect haven for unwinding. From the tiled foyer, step down into the fully finished lower level where two additional bedrooms share a beautifully outfitted three-quarter bathroom. A family room with walk-out access to the patio is highlighted by a wood-burning fireplace that sets the scene for cozy movie nights or lively game days. Outside, convenience meets versatility with an attached two-car garage recently updated with a new motor, and a detached two-car garage fully equipped with electric and a poured concrete floor, ideal for cars, toys, or workshop projects. An upper deck overlooks the expansive acreage which offers space to roam, garden, and entertain, while the covered hand-laid stone patio provides a charming spot for outdoor gatherings. With Waterloo schools, dining, and amenities just minutes away, this home blends the tranquility of country living with everyday convenience. Your next chapter, one filled with sunrise strolls, fireside evenings, and endless possibilities, begins here.
