Nestled on a double lot in Granite City, this two-bedroom, one-bath property offers an exceptional opportunity for investors, flippers, or anyone seeking a rewarding renovation project. A spacious foyer welcomes you into an open living and dining area, creating a flexible layout. A small hallway leads to a bathroom and a galley-style kitchen area serving as a blank canvas, ready for updates. Upstairs, two bedrooms feature large windows that fill the space with natural light, enhancing this property's warm and inviting feel. Outside, a covered back porch overlooks the back yard, complete with a shed perfect for storing tools and lawn equipment. The home is mid-renovation and currently has utilities disconnected, but all public services are available onsite and ready for activation by the new owner. Located in an established neighborhood close to parks, schools, and major Metro East thoroughfares, this property combines convenience with potential. Whether you are planning a fix-and-flip or adding another rental to your portfolio, this home is a promising investment opportunity.
